“Let’s Contemplate with Annoos” curriculum

The curriculum aim is to build and develop the creative moral character that is able to contribute its part to human civilization by achieving integrative development, i.e. spiritual, mental and behavioral development. The curriculum is based on a unique methodology that combines originality with modernity. Originality is simply manifested through contemplation, identity and moral values, whereas modernity is manifested through the latest theories and applications of our time that are concerned with brain building and multiple intelligences.
